

Seeing The Word: Program Manual

Image, Read, and Spell Three and Four Syllables

SAMPLE LESSON

Break, Read, and Image Multisyllable Cards: Three Syllables

The Set

Nanci: "I'll show you a card with a three-syllable word. Finger-break it, then read it."
Buzz: "Okay." (Smiling.) "Sort of easy."

The Lesson

Nanci: "Yes, I know. You are getting really good at this." (Showing him the card extremely.)

Buzz: "Hmmm. I see my beginning and my ending." (Using his finger to break the word as ex/treme/ly.) "The middle part is kind of weird but I think it says.../trem/."

Nanci: "Great job. What is the word all together?"

Buzz: "Ex...treme...ly. Oh, extremely! I'm doing extremely well!" (A big smile.)

Nanci: "What is the second syllable you pictured?" (Covering the word.)

Buzz: "Easy. That was the /trem/ part, T-R-E-M-E. The word was E-X...T-R-E-M-E...L-Y. Extremely easy!" (Chuckling.)

Nanci: "Yes, it is! New word. This time eye-break it and read it." (Showing him the card convention.)

Buzz: "Okay." (Looking at the card carefully.) "Con...ven...tion. Convention." (Smiling.)

Nanci: "Great. What did you picture for the middle syllable? Air-write it this time."

Buzz: "Hmmm. Let me see." (Eyes up, saying the letters and air-writing.) "V-E-N. Want me to air-write the whole word?" (Smiling confidently.)
